

2021-22

Year 3 Scope & Sequence

Rhetoric Level Studies					Dialectic/Grammar
History	Literature		Government	Philosophy	Church History	Beyond history...
	Titles	Analysis
Unit 1	- Presidents J. Adams, Jefferson, Madison, and Monroe. - The career of Napoleon Bonaparte - The War of 1812 - The Congress of Vienna - Simon Bolivar and the South American independence movements: 1800-1825	- The following literary concepts and tools for studying them are taught and used in many different weeks throughout the year-plan for story analysis, drama analysis, and poetry analysis: - Literary vocabulary - Structures - Modes - Topics - Themes - Genres - Devices - Techniques - Meters - Characters - Artistry - Plots - Settings - Style - Worldview analysis - Historical literary movements - Authors' lives	- Declaration of Independence & Bill of Rights - Declaration of the Rights of Man Democracy in America (Tocqueville)* - Code of Napoleon - Alien & Sedition Acts - The Marshall Court	- Kant - Schleiermacher - Hegel	- William Carey - William Wilberforce - Adoniram Judson - The Roman Catholic Church and the French Revolution - New challenges to Christianity in the Age of Progress	- Hands-on activities reinforce history topics. - Geography threads include maps and activities tied to history. - Historical fiction and picture books reinforce all studies. - Vocabulary words given weekly for grammar students reinforce history and literature studies. - Follow-up worksheets are given for books read as literature most weeks. - The history of artistic styles is woven into history lessons. - Weekly writing assignments are keyed to history topics. - Many grammar students enjoy Lampstand Press lapbook products which parallel and reinforce weekly history topics. - Dialectic students may choose to reinforce their work using time lines.
Unit 2	- Presidents J.Q. Adams, Jackson, Van Buren, Harrison, Tyler, Polk, and Taylor - Victorian England & British Empire - The settlement of Australia - Manifest Destiny: American pioneers - Mexican-American War - CA gold rush & telegraph - Clashes of nationalism: 1830's and 1848 - Marx and Communism	Les Miserables (Hugo) The Scarlet Letter (Hawthorne) Billy Budd (Melville) - Poets: Dickinson, Hopkins, Whitman	Democracy in America (Tocqueville)* - Thoreau and Civil Disobedience Communist Manifesto	- James Mill - Schopenhauer - Emerson - Thoreau - Darwin - Newman - Marx	- Second Great Awakening: revivalism and Charles Finney - Clapham and Oxford movements in England - Joseph Smith, Brigham Young, and the Mormons	- Many grammar students enjoy Lampstand Press lapbook products which parallel and reinforce weekly history topics. - Dialectic students may choose to reinforce their work using time lines.
Unit 3	- Presidents Fillmore, Pierce, Buchanan, Lincoln, A. Johnson, and Grant - Crimean War - China, Japan, and Opium Wars - Underground Railroad - American Civil War - Reconstruction - Unification of Italy & of Germany	Huckleberry Finn (Twain) Great Expectations (Dickens) - Major Poets and Short Story Writers: Flaubert, the Brownings, C. Rossetti, Arnold, Tennyson, Whittier - Beijing Opera and Chinese poetry	- Fugitive Slave law - Kansas-Nebraska Act Dred Scott - Secession arguments - Emancipation Proclamation - Civil War Amendments - Slaughterhouse Cases	- Kierkegaard - John Stuart Mill - Marx - Darwin	- Hudson Taylor The Civil War as a Theological Crisis (Noll) - David Livingstone	- Many grammar students enjoy Lampstand Press lapbook products which parallel and reinforce weekly history topics. - Dialectic students may choose to reinforce their work using time lines.
Unit 4	- Presidents Hayes, Garfield, Arthur, Cleveland, Harrison, and McKinley - Edison and Bell - Imperialism - Immigration - Captains of Industry - Populists and "Muckrakers" - Problems of urbanization - Spanish-American War	Crime and Punishment (Dostoevsky) A Doll's House (Ibsen) Heart of Darkness (Conrad) The Death of Ivan Ilyich (Tolstoy) An Ideal Husband (Wilde) Patience (Gilbert & Sullivan)	- Labor issues - Trust busters - Nativism - Progressivism Plessy v. Ferguson - Women's suffrage movement - Temperance movement	- Newman - Vatican Canons - Nietzsche - William James	- Mary Slessor - Dwight L. Moody - Charles Spurgeon	- Many grammar students enjoy Lampstand Press lapbook products which parallel and reinforce weekly history topics. - Dialectic students may choose to reinforce their work using time lines.

*Indicates that students read selections from this work.

UPDATED AUGUST 2016